

First DataBank to support medication error prevention organizations

First DataBank to support Families Launching Action Against Medication Errors and the Josie King Foundation to reduce medication errors.

Feb 21, 2008
By:Reid Paul
Drug Topics Daily News

FirstDataBank has pledged to offer support to two organizations focused on reducing medication errors. Families Launching Action Against Medication Errors (FLAAME) and the Josie King Foundation are organizations founded by families impacted by medication errors. First DataBank has offered to donate $5 for each wristband it distributes at trade shows and other industry events this year.

To see more Daily News articles, click here.

To go to the Drug Topics homepage, click here.